MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1392.

A Victim of the Law. The contested election in the House of Representatives, Yost vs. Tucker, in which a sufficient number of Republi-CARS under the leadership' of Congress. man McCell, of Massachusetts, voted with the Democrats in favor of Mr. Tucker to overcome the great 'majority of the Republicans who supported the claim of Mr. Yost, is a case where a technical construction of the Australian ballot law in uso in Virginia thwa ted the will of the people. So, far as we have been able to direaver, no one lare tends that a majority of the voters in the district did not inver the election of Mr. Yost, but in the language of Mr. Meof the law, which is mandatory in its character, we. (the committer) as judges, have no right to count them."

that the spirit and letter of the law, officers having begin many cases converse? The war who destroy's evidence a volume. shall not be heard which he wants beneilt because of its destruction."

All these conspiracies against the law were admitted, but they were out-weighed in the minds of a majority of the committee by the fact that the absolute technical requirements in marking the ballot were not complied with. 'Mr. McCall in defending the setion of the majority of the committee, based on the technicalities of the law, illustrated he tochnicalities of the law, illustrated its complicated features as follows:

Now, most of the members, who hear me have that, or a similar statute, in force in their jown. Status, and of sake them, did you fled—I put the question to; each of you—did you that that the first time that statute was put in appearation every voted, even, every literificant voter, aneceded in expressing his will according to law? Way, a distinguished gentleman from Malow where the propersons intelligentum in any istate in the Uulon, after the first trial, of the Australian system there wrotes better to the papers assaiching that ten per cent, if the voters of Malow had peen distranchised by that system of voting. In the case in point the law has cost as gentleman his election to the present Congress although he'ls a member-elect of next House. . If the House were as evenly divided as the Senate the fallure to elect a Republican Congressman owing to technical defects in the ballot might be the means of defeating the much needed tariff legislation. The act op of the insportsy of the committee in Instating on a strict construction of the law in the matter of marking willia apparently ignoring the gross violations of the law in other respects was authorited to severe and merited criticism and only previlled by reason of Democratic votes.

Improvement on Peffer. .While it is a matter for regret that the State of Kansas did not throw off the Populist yoke last full it would seem that in the selection of a United States Sepator the Legislature had improved considerably on Mr. Peffer, Senatorelect Barrls la a Popullat, but according to current report he la not an absolutely one idea man ilke his predecessor. - He is ereulted with much bronder views oo' We offer questions of public welfare than those entertained by the average Populist. If Subject to prior sale these reports prove correct, and it is to be hoped they may, the wonder is how the particular brand of L'opulistic legislatures out in Kansas happened to skip Peffer and delect Hairis.

Protection and Free Trade. The Boston Advertiser says; So long as the policy of protection remained established by the annetion of the people at the ballot boxes, from and after the process of cancelling the war indebtednees began, the revenues of the Government were enough for its expenses, enough for its pensions, enough for the payment of its bonds at maturity, enough to enable is to reduce atendily its rate of interest paid, and in the course of a very few years, when the worst effects of the war upon trade and commerce had passed away, and a wise and salutary protective system had had time to produce its full PRICE ON APPLICATION. effect, the revenue piled and up and up; in spite of the abolition of the income tax, in spite of the abolition of nearly all the internal revenue taxes, in spite of the return to specie payments, in solte of paylog the debt ever so much feater than it became due; the -revenue piled up and up, under the protective system bearing its natural fruit until there was a surplus in the Treasury so huge that it threatened disturbance to the chrrency equilibrium, and how to reduce the surplus became a leading prob-

In 1860, for the first time in thirty-six years, a Presidential election was sarried ry a party which declared itself bestile or the pertueble principle. Serious State of Affairs in Beigiem Over Public Sontiment, Ageinet

London, Jan. 23.—(Special cable letter.)—The developments of the identity on the address in reply to the queen's speech have so far been adverse to the hopes of the liberals and especially of the home rulers, who expected the govists and Nationalists is not the practical sort of common action which the Nationalist lenders dealers' and which they were led to believe would be effected. Since parliament time thews have been low changed between Col. Samulerson, Mr. Horace Planket, Mr. Dilton, Mr. Horace in the appropriate of application of the appropriate form for a common call.

The Nationalist lenders have found but the recent warmth of feeding pronthe question left among the Irish Union-left distinctly became chilled. The percentage voice of the Saunderson faction that working relations with the home rulers on any question would be form the mand tiple known also that the government has compowered the whiles to promise a full reconsideration of the marter. The Irish Unionists therefore while continuing its support in abstruct and sentimental, fashion, the Irish demands with not your against the government whose majority against the Dillon, Redmond and other anaendments remains latter.
